

HP Hedge Danish Bonds wins a prestigious award

Thursday, January 24th, Eurohedge announced this year's award winners at a spectacular show in London. HP Hedge Danish Bonds, won in the category Fixed Income, as the fund yielding the highest risk-adjusted return in 2018. One of the main drivers behind the steady positive return in 2018 for HP Hedge Danish Bonds, has been the focus on Danish mortgage bonds with an emphasis on high coupon bonds. These have in the present investment environment with relatively predictable monetary conditions and a capricious political climate been a stabilizing element of the portfolio.
